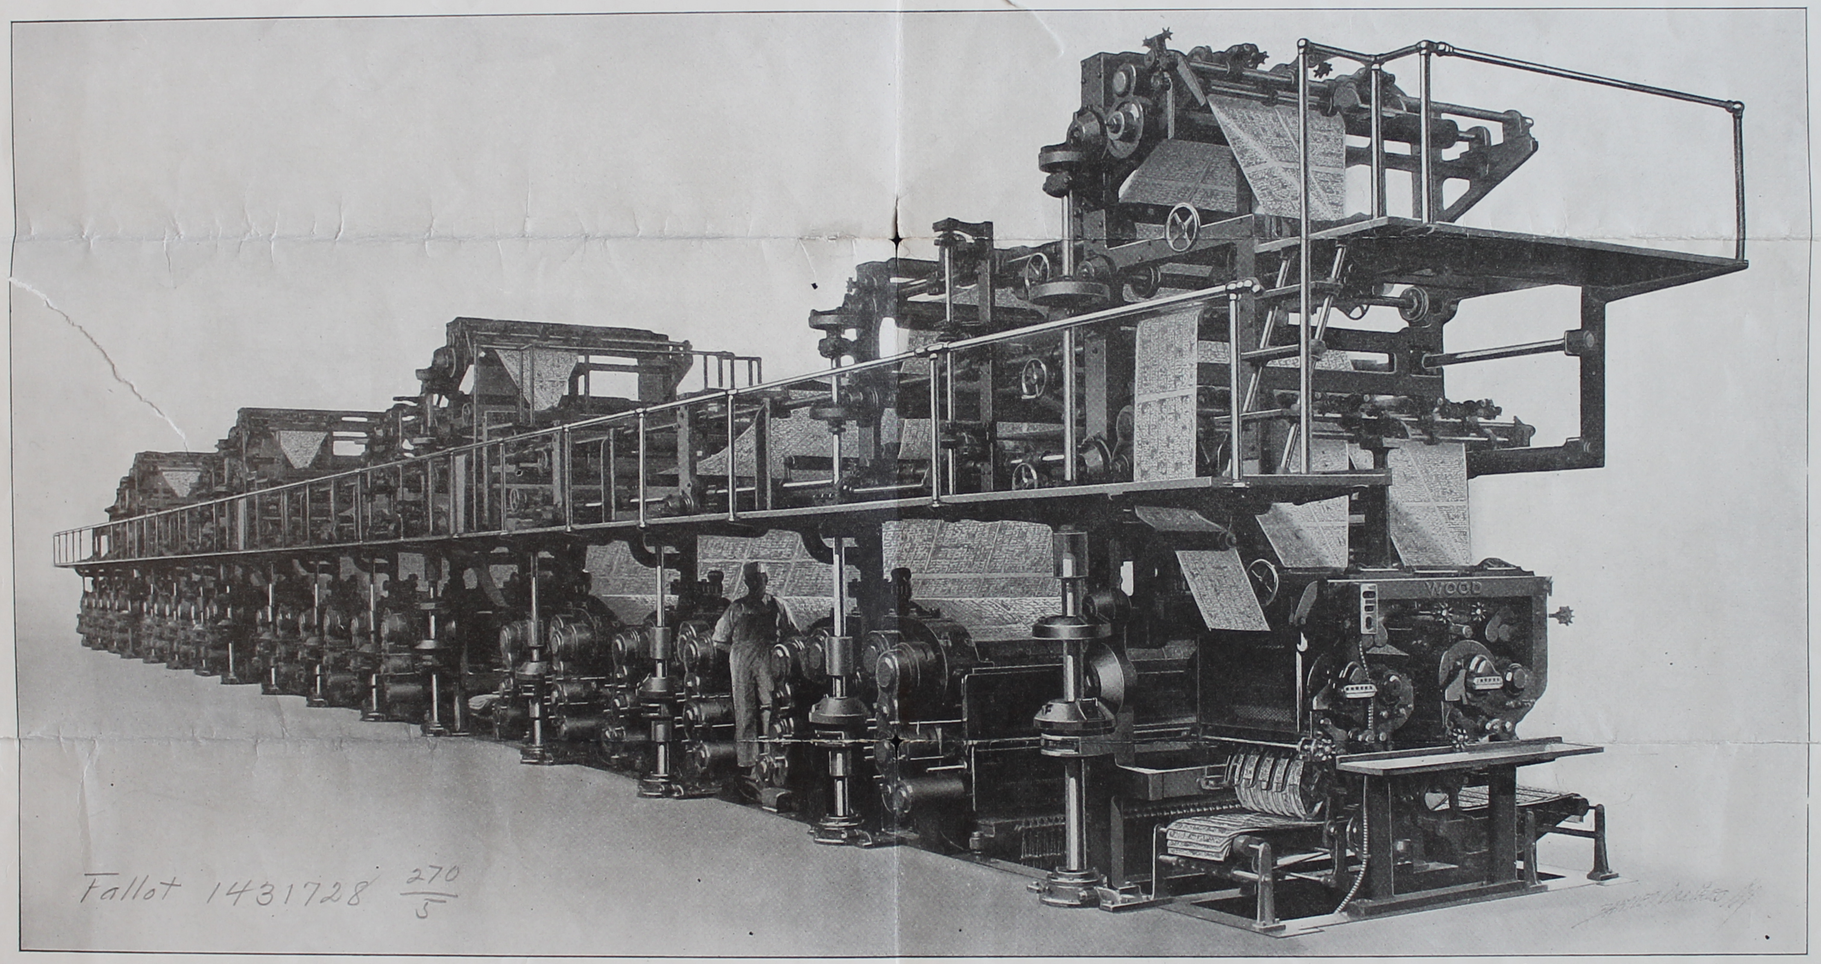
U. S. PATENT
FILED
MAY 6 1925
DIVISION XVII

From THE FOURTH ESTATE, April 18, 1925

THE WOOD NEWSPAPER PRINTING PRESS



Fallot 1431728 $\frac{270}{5}$

Built especially for the "Philadelphia Inquirer."

This is a 12-roll unit-type machine having four double folders, each fitted with three formers. Its normal running speed is 600 cylinder revolutions a minute, which is at the rate of 72,000 products per hour per delivery. It is all-steel, unbreakable, uses helical gears throughout, and its every bearing is a ball bearing. Weight, 916,000 lbs.

WOOD NEWSPAPER MACHINERY CORPORATION, 501 Fifth Avenue, New York City

300,

10:5/062

12 600
859

17

756000 17
9 8000
5 9 0 0 0 0 0 0 102
9 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
12 | 12,852

4/20